

Animal Rescue Contest

Frequently Asked Questions

How long will the contest run?	June 5, 2016 thru July 18, 2016
Who can participate?	Any animal rescue can participate - no species restrictions!
Who keeps track of sales?	Each participating rescue will receive their own unique checkout code to give to their supporters for tracking purposes. However, it is strongly encouraged that each rescue also does their due diligence and validates sales from their supporters who enroll.
When can I expect my donation?	After the contest ends and all funds are verified.
How will I receive payment?	Check, PayPal or donate link on your website
Why do we have to get to 85 combined sales?	The grand prizes are contingent on total sales. Jeff Coltenback does not have $16000.00. This is the purpose of the contest: to generate revenue so rescues can win money!
What if I don't refer any paid students?	This is a contest. 5% of zero is $0.00. Even if you just refer 1 paid student, you will receive at least a 5% donation.
What if I don't refer any paid students -part 2?	This may not be an easy sell - a $450 product. But, you are competing for TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS!!!! You can do it!!!
What if I refer a paid student to you certification program valued at $999?	Your referral will then count as TWO paid referrals for the purpose of this contest! This referral has to be validated by both Jeff Coltenback and the paying student.
How can I spread the word about the contest?	Social media, websites, email contacts, etc. Using your Facebook page or creating a Facebook event could be helpful to you. Artwork and information literature will be provided in case you want to distribute locally.
How do people get a refund?	Unfortunately, there are no refunds. ALL SALES ARE FINAL!! Folks will be paying for and downloading a digital product. Once it is downloaded, there is no way to "get it back". This is a not a pair of sneakers that you can physically return to a store.
Where do we direct supporters to enroll?	www.RescueContest.com
What if we have additional questions?	We are in this together. Jeff Coltenback is available throughout the contest to answer any questions from you or potential students. His email and website are provided.
